Dublin, June 12.

YEsterday being the Day of His Majesty's happy Succession to the Throne, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out on Oxmantown-Green. At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction; after which their Excellencies, attended with the Guard of Battle Axes, and a Detachment of Dragoons, made a Tour round St. Stephen's Green: And the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Hampton-Court, June 13.

This Day Count Rantzau, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had his first private Audience of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards introduced to a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke, by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Hampton-Court, June 17.

This Day Count Rantzau, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had his first private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, and their Royal Highnesses the Princess Amelia and the Princess Caroline; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Hampton-Court, June 17.

This Day Sig. Pucci, Secretary from the Grand Duke of Tuscany, had a private Audience of His Majesty, to notify the Death of the Great Princess Violante of Tuscany; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards introduced to a private Audience of the Queen, in Her Majesty's Apartment, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, June 10, 1730.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having been commanded by His Majesty to receive all Proposals that may be laid before them for preventing the pernicious Practice of running of Wooll from England and Ireland, and to consider of and propose proper Methods to prevent such Practices for the future, and lay the same before the House of Peers in the Beginning of the next Session of Parliament; These are therefore to inform all Persons who may have any such Proposals to make, that the said Lords Commissioners for Trade are ready to receive the same at their Office in Whitehall.

By Command of their Lordships,
Assured Popple.

General-Post-Office, June 18, 1731.

These are to give Notice, that the Post will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge, and from Tunbridge-Wells to London, from Monday the Twenty First Instant, during the Summer Season as usual.
